

MID-SOUTH HYDRANGEA SOCIETY AND
DIXON GALLERY & GARDENS

PRESENT

Betty Montgomery

South Carolina Garden Columnist, Book Author & Gardener

"Hydrangeas: How to Grow, Cultivate and Enjoy"

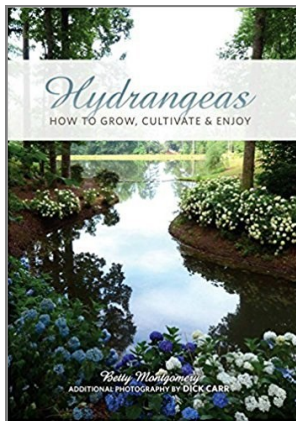

Mid-South Hydrangea Society

Monday, April 9, 2018 — 7:00p.m.

(Doors open at 6:00p.m.)

Memphis Botanic Garden • 750 Cherry Rd • Memphis, TN 38117

Free for Members, $5 for Visitors. Annual Membership $10

Betty Montgomery's latest book is devoted to hydrangeas, America's most beloved garden shrub and a plant that she has grown all her life. Betty, who lives and gardens in Spartanburg, South Carolina, started her collection of hydrangeas about 21 years ago and has now amassed over 150 cultivars. Join us for Betty's informative and inspiring presentation.

"A Four-Season Southern Garden"

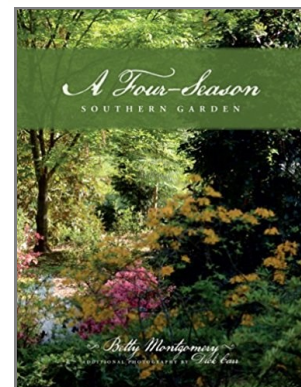

Dixon Gallery & Gardens

Sunday, April 8, 2018 — 3:00p.m.

4339 Park Ave. • Memphis, TN 38117

In Betty Montgomery's first book, A Four-Season Southern Garden, she shares her gardening experience from forty years of love and labor in both of her zone 7 gardens in the Carolinas. Her presentation at the Dixon will draw from this book and will take you on a delightful journey through the four seasons of her southern garden.

DIXON
GALLERY & GARDENS

NOTE: Both of Betty Montgomery's books will be available for purchase at the Mid-South Hydrangea Society and Dixon events.